

MODERN SLAVERY ACT STATEMENT

Who we are

Sabre is a leading technology solutions provider to nearly US$8 trillion travel industry. Our technology and data-driven solutions help our airline, hotel and travel agency customers grow their businesses and transform the traveler experience. The scale, breadth and depth of our technology is unmatched and sustains a complex industry.

What we do

We provide an open and stable platform to deliver flexible, reliable and scalable solutions. Over the years, we have shaped and modernized the travel industry. We web and mobile itinerary tools, to name a few. Sabre offers the travel industry's broadest range of technology solutions including data-driven business intelligence, mobile, distribution and Software as a Service (SaaS) solutions, used by travel suppliers and buyers to plan, market, sell, serve and operate their businesses.

Our commitment

Sabre is committed to combating slavery and human trafficking within its own practices and ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in its supply chain or any part of its business. Sabre was the first Global Distribution System to sign the Tourism Code of Conduct and has launched "Passport to Freedom," a comprehensive initiative seeking to unite the travel and tourism industry to fight child sex trafficking and human slavery. Passport to Freedom is Sabre's signature corporate responsibility program to help fight human trafficking and provide support to victims and survivors. Our goals are to increase awareness and educate the travel industry on human trafficking issues, advocate for legislative changes, and provide opportunities for leaders to collaborate.

Our supply chain

We are committed to corporate responsibility and minimizing the impact of our global business operations. Sabre expects its suppliers to respect the human rights of their employees and others and to comply with relevant legislation.

Our policies

Sabre's commitment to upholding business ethics is outlined in our Code of Business Ethics.

Sabre is confident that the steps already taken will help reduce the likelihood of modern slavery that could be taking place in our business or supply chain. We will continue to strive to understand the risks better.
